BUILDING INSPECTOR TOWN OF NOTTINGHAM, NH

The Town of Nottingham, NH is seeking a part-time building inspector. The inspector provides inspection services, reporting, code enforcement, and responds to inquiries from property owners and developers.

Inspections are generally appointment-based and some office hours will be required. The exact schedule is to be determined in consultation with the selected candidate(s).

Successful candidates will show successful experience with building construction and/or inspection; and working with the general public and firms in the building trades. Comprehensive knowledge of ICC codes, state and federal law, and local ordinances regarding construction are required. Strong communications skills, basic computer skills, and valid driver license also required. Of particular interest are candidates with ICC certification, and knowledge of public health law.

Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest and resume by June 1, 2018 to:
