

Amherst, New Hampshire
Building Inspector/Code Enforcement/Deputy Health Officer

The Town of Amherst is seeking qualified applicants for the position of Building Inspector/Code Enforcement/Deputy Health Officer. Amherst, with a population of approximately 11,753, is located in southern New Hampshire.

This full-time position is responsible for the review of residential and commercial building permit applications, septic system permit applications, on-site inspections, and code enforcement. The Building Inspector/Code Enforcement Officer assists property owners, contractors, developers and the general public with interpretation and application of the zoning ordinance, building codes and permitting requirements. As deputy health officer, the position assists in the investigation of health-related complaints.

The ideal candidate will be a motivated self-starter, who is organized and customer-service oriented and who possesses excellent interpersonal skills.

Three to five years of experience as a building inspector, building contractor, architect or engineer and ICC residential building inspector certification, or ability to readily obtain such, are required. ICC commercial building inspector certification, plumber's license and electrician's license are beneficial.

The Town of Amherst is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

For more information and a complete job description please visit the Town's website:
<https://www.amherstnh.gov/human-resources/files/employment-opportunities>

To apply, please send cover letter, town application form and resume to Nic Strong, Community Development Director, Town of Amherst, 2 Main Street, Amherst, NH 03031, or email to nstrong@amherstnh.gov

Salary range is $35.35 to $41.45 per hour, depending on qualifications, and includes a comprehensive benefit package.

Position is open until filled.